

REPORT FROM 6th PROJECT MEETING IN QUIMPER, FRANCE THURSDAY 23rd JUNE 2022

On Thursday morning, my host family and I got up at 6 a.m. and got ready for a day trip to the city of Brest. At 8 a.m. we boarded the bus to Brest together in front of the school. The journey took less than 2 hours from the town of Qimper.

It rained almost the whole journey and the weather was not the best. We arrived at the place before 10 am. The bus dropped us off at the small port of Brest, where we took a boat ride around the coast of the city. It rained the whole time on the way out to sea, but we were able to take shelter in the covered part of the boat. The boat ride took approximately 1 and a half hours. The boat dropped us off at the same place we boarded.

Then we waited for the bus together and went to a huge hall with restaurants, a place for sports and everything together. We went to the hall because the weather was bad and we had no place to eat lunch from home. We stayed in the hall until 1:30pm and then got on the bus again and it took us to Oceanopolis.

Oceanopolis is kind of a smaller zoo with several sections that contain mostly aquatic animals. The first one was with animals from the polar regions, so we saw penguins, seals and other animals. In another were otters, which were huge.

The third was with animals from tropical areas, such as: stingrays, sharks, turtles, and different kinds of fish. And the fourth and last department was the local, i.e. Breton animals, where we could find crabs, sea lions and others.

After the whole excursion in the zoo we went to have a snack in the local cafe. Then we made our way to the bus, which was waiting for us in the parking lot of the zoo. At 4:30 p.m. we arrived in front of the school and went to the local bar to have a drink. From the bar we went straight to the bus stop where we went home.

By 5:30 we were home and had time to rest. At 7 p.m. we went out to dinner with our host family and had a local traditional dish called Crêpe, which is a pancake that you can put whatever you want in. I had it with egg, ham and cheese. Once we finished dinner we went to the nearest beach where I collected shells and chatted with my friend. Around 10 o'clock we went back to meet her parents at the bar where a well-known band was playing. We listened to the concert and talked for the rest of the evening. Then we went home to rest.
