

The Flea Market

The Flea Market in Teror is the oldest flea market of Gran Canarias. It is 200 years old. The market is in the centre of Teror near the church - Basílica de la Virgen del Pino. It is open every Sunday after the mess. There are 140 stalls and some shops as well. There is everything. The church is a place of pilgrimage, so there are a lot of products related to Holy Mary. Fruit and vegetables, sweets, the famous Canary Islands sausage, handicraft products, clothes and costumes are sold. It is almost impossible not to find on the market what you need.
