

Casa Museo de los Patronos de la Virgen

It is an old castle in the historic centre of Vila Mariana de Terror in Gran Canaria. It is located close to the Plaza de Nuestra Señora del Pino. The facade of this old manor mansion emerges between the grove that borders the pavement of the square. Among other things, liturgical objects and the throne are guarded here. On the ground floor, which was once a deposit of valuable Virgen del Pino goods were comfortable apartments as you walk down the corridor and to the left is the main hall. In its day, it was a modern living room. Before it belonged to the Manrique de Lara family, the castle was owned by Rodríguez del Toro.

